

LCCI members for issuance of Driving Licenses from the premises of the LCCI

Lahore Traffic Police will start soon a special service for LCCI members for issuance of Driving Licenses from the premises of the Lahore Chamber of Commerce and Industry. This was revealed by SSP City Traffic Police Syed Ahmad Mobeen while talking to LCCI President Irfan Qaiser Sheikh here on Wednesday at an award giving ceremony arranged by LCCI Standing Committee on Paper and Paper Board Traders to pay tributes to the best performers in different private and public sectors. The LCCI Senior Vice President Kashif Younis Meher & Convener of the Standing Committee Khamis saeed Butt also spoke while DIG Traffic Ghalib Ali Bandesha, Capt[®] Usman Khattak, SSP Traffic Faisalabad Sardar Asif Ali were present on the occasion. Syed Ahmad Mobeen said that a committee comprising Lahore traffic police officials and LCCI Executive Committee Members would also be formed to give final touches to this mega project aimed at facilitating all the members of the Lahore Chamber of Commerce and Industry. He said initially the service would be started on weekly/monthly basis but later on its scope would be extended keeping in view the response of the business community.

He informed the participants that City traffic police was putting in its best efforts to keep vehicular traffic on the move. It is providing necessary assistance to the government in the removal of encroachments which are the biggest hurdle in the flow of traffic.

Speaking on the occasion, the LCCI President Irfan Qaiser Sheikh said that appreciation to the best performers always promotes excellence in all walks of life and the Lahore Chamber of Commerce and Industry would continue to play its role to this regard for turning Pakistan into a hub of business and economic activities.

Irfan Qaiser Sheikh said that there are no two opinions about it that only strong institutions could guarantee good governance as weak institutions mean weak system and no country could achieve its targets with weak system.

Appreciating the role of traffic police, he said police has gained high respect in the eyes of the public due to the great sacrifices they have made in tackling the acts of terrorism. He said police is now acting as a dedicated force that would go a long way in reducing crimes.

He said that keeping the flow of the traffic was a Herculean task but the traffic police was managing it in such a nice manner that every segment of society was appreciating them. He said that the liaison between police and the business community was a must and the Lahore Chamber of Commerce was giving a special attention to increase liaison with police.

Khamis Saeed Butt, the Convener LCCI Standing Committee on Paper and Paper Board Traders, paid rich tributes to traffic police for having consistent liaison with trading community.

He said that the traffic police role is very vital in the sense that a disciplined traffic flow gives a picture of whole society on the one hand while on the other hand it plays its role in economic turnaround by cutting transportation time of goods carriers. He said that All Pakistan Paper Merchants Association (APMA) had thrice been provided the opportunity to hold licensing course.
